A copy of the recent report to the Board on Community Policing was provided. This report is produced annually by the Durham Regional Police Service and includes substantial detail on current trends and issues confronting the Service, and offers insight into how the DRPS works in partnership with the community to enhance community safety. The report serves as an excellent summary of the extensive divisional activities and Regional initiatives undertaken by the DRPS, and we encourage to share the report with Council members. As well, as part of our commitment to engage the Community, the Board is requesting to appear at each local municipal Council once per year.
